REPORT OF THE COUNCIL,

February 25th, 1874.

PUPILS AND FEES.

The entire number of Pupils during the Session was 1542, being an increase of 50 on that of the preceding Session. Of these, 893 were Students in the College, and 649 Pupils in the School. Of the Students, 322 belonged to the Faculty of Medicine, 95 being new Students: in the Faculties of Arts and Laws and of Science there were 571 Students, of whom 69 attended the Evening Classes; in these Faculties there were 345 new Students. The largest number of Boys in the School in any one Term was 567.

The Fees received (exclusive of those for Clinical Instruction) amounted to £24,266 10*s*. 6*d*., being £1948 16*s*. more than in Session 1871–72. This sum consists of the following items :—Fees for attendance on the Classes of the Faculty of Medicine, £6112 11*s*. 6*d*.; Fees for attendance on the Classes of the Faculties of Arts and Laws and of Science, £7053 18*s*., of which £301 7*s*. was on account of the Evening Classes; School Fees, £11,100 1*s*. The total payments to Professors, Teachers, and Masters amounted to £16,904 8*s*. 6*d*., leaving £7362 2*s*. for the College portion, which was thus greater by £672 12*s*. 10*d*. than in the preceding Session. In addition to the above-stated amounts, the sum of £2010 7*s*. (being a decrease of £39 2*s*. on the previous year) was received for Clinical Instruction in the Hospital, making a total of £8122 18*s*. 6*d*. paid by Students of the Faculty of Medicine in the Session. The Hospital Fees were, as usual, devoted to the support of the Charity, no part of them being taken by the Medical Officers.

SCHOOL.

The following extracts from the Report of the School Committee, presented to the Council on February 7th, give a satisfactory account of the School during Session 1872–73.

"The Head Master commences his Report with the following comparative statement of the number of boys in the School during the several Terms of the last four years :—

	1st Term.	2nd Term.	3rd Term.	Average for the year.
1869–70.....	390	417	419	409
1870–71.....	442	495	511	462
1871–72.....	501	524	530	518
1872–73.....	508	542	567	539

"The number of entries for the first Term of the current Session was 540.

"It is gratifying to find that the growth of the School still continues, and has not been checked by the increase of Fee charged to all Pupils entering for the first time after the commencement of the present Session, for the number of entries in last Michaelmas Term is equal to the average during the whole of last Session, and is considerably larger than that in the First Term of any previous Session.

"The Committee are glad to be able to report that the general discipline of the School, and the conduct of the boys continue in the satisfactory condition mentioned in the Reports of former years. The Assistant Masters bear testimony to this most important fact in their reports upon the several classes under their care. As corporal punishment is never had recourse to under any circumstances, University College School is a standing proof that good order can be maintained without it, even in a school which is conducted on principles involving very frequent changes in the classification of the scholars. This satisfactory result may be mainly attributed to the time and attention devoted to the disciplinal part of his duties, by the Vice Master."

The new School Buildings, the commencement of the erection of which was mentioned in the Council's last Report, were, as was hoped, completed in time to be occupied at the beginning of the current Session, and they constitute a most important addition to the accommodations provided for the ever increasing number of pupils; at the same time, they have left vacant for strictly College purposes seven or eight rooms formerly allotted to the School, and have enabled various improvements to be made in the arrangements for the Professors and Students of the Faculty of Arts and Laws. At the Session of Council on April 5, it was resolved that the donation of £1000 from Mr. J. Pemberton Heywood, announced in the Report presented at the Meeting in February 1873, should be applied towards defraying the cost of the School Building, and that Mr. Heywood's name should be attached to one of the new Theatres.

At the same Session was presented a Report from the School Committee, in which two important changes affecting the School were recommended and were adopted by the Council. The first of these was, that the Junior School should be discontinued after the close of the then current Session; the second, that the School Fee after the same date should be raised from £7 to £8 per term for all Pupils except those who were then in the School, and who should be allowed to remain during Session 1873-74 at the old fee of £7; but that from the commencement of Session 1874–75 the fee of £8 should be charged for all Pupils without distinction.

A special notice announcing these changes, and briefly assigning reasons for their adoption, was issued to the Parents of all the Pupils then in the School in the month of May last; and the propriety of the changes in question may be said to have been universally admitted by those to whom the notice was addressed. The increase in the number of Pupils which has taken place concurrently with the raising of the fee is a satisfactory proof that the measure adopted by the Council was proper and reasonable; and the additional funds thus obtained will enable the Council to effect several desirable objects.

The first award of the Trevelyan Goodall Fine-Art Scholarship was made to Mr. W. B. Wollen, on the Report of Prof. Poynter and Mr. Fisk, the principal Drawing Master in the School.

The former pupils of the School who in the College Examinations won Prizes and Certificates of Honour were the following:—Mr. J. V. Jones obtained a Second Andrews Prize for first year's Students, of £25; Mr.. H F. Morley obtained the first Andrews Prize of £30 for first year Students at the end of Session 1872–73, and the Jews' Commemoration Scholarship; Mr. C. A. CASE MEMORIAL FUND.

This Fund was raised by the subscriptions of the friends of the late Mr. W. A. Case, M.A., one of the earliest Fellows of the College, and the first Vice-Master of the School. The Subscribers proposed that the income of the Fund should be applied to found an Exhibition of £20, to be awarded annually to the Pupil who distinguishes himself most in the School Examinations of the Session preceding his entry into the Classes of the College, and that the residue of the income should be expended upon a "Case Prize for Classics," to be awarded annually to the Pupil in the School who displays the greatest proficiency in Latin and Greek. These proposals were submitted to the Council on June 21st, when they were approved, and the trust was accepted by the Council on behalf of the College. The Fund has been invested in the purchase of £535 London and North-Western Railway 5 per cent. Preference Stock.

EVENING CLASSES.

The total number of tickets issued during the Session was 202, an increase of 20 on the number for Session 1870–71; the fees paid amounted to £301 7*s.*, which was greater by £76 13*s.* than the receipts in the previous Session, although the number of Students increased only from 63 to 69.

The changes that were introduced into the organization of these Classes last Session, as explained in the Council's Report, were continued for the present one.

GENERAL FINANCES.

The surplus of receipts over expenditure for this Session is £896 7*s.* 9*d.*, although the sum expended in house and furniture repairs, and in providing new furniture and fittings amounted to no less than £2210 18*s.* 10*d.*, being upwards of £200 more than the corresponding expenditure in the preceding Session, and although there was an additional outlay of £130 on the College Soirées. The large sum spent on repairs was partly occasioned by the erection of the new Physiological Laboratory. On the other hand the expenditure on Advertising, Printing, Stationery, and Prizes has been lessened. The final result is that the total outlay on establishment expenses is only £276 greater than in the previous Session.

II. THE CURRENT SESSION.

The entries of Students to February 18th have been as follows:—In the Faculty of Medicine, 285, of whom 72 are new Students; in the Faculties of Arts and Laws and of Science, 501 (including 155 in the Fine-Art School, and 50 attending the Evening Classes), of whom 244 are new Students: in the School, in Michaelmas Term, 540, of whom 94 were new pupils; in the present Term, 567, 79 being new pupils. Compared with the entries to February 13th last year, these returns show a decrease of 10 in the Medical Classes, and an increase of 30 in the Arts, Laws, and Science Classes; in the School an increase of 32 in the Michelmas Term, and of 30 in the Current Term.

The decrease in the number of new Medical Students this Session is 6, and in that of new Students in the other Faculties, 13.

The College Fees received to February 18th are £4142 5*s.* in the Faculty of Medicine, and £5652 3*s.* in the Faculties of Arts and Laws and of Science. These sums are an increase of £4 4*s.* in the Medical Fees, and an increase of £261 3*s.* in the Fees of the other Faculties, as compared with the corresponding receipts to the same date last year.

PROFESSORSHIPS.

The changes in the professorial body during this year have been comparatively few.

The principal event of this kind was the resignation, accepted by the Council on November 1st, by Prof. Fuller of the Chair of Engineering, which he had occupied since 1868, and in the discharge of the duties of which he had displayed exemplary zeal and diligence. Prof. Fuller resigned his post here in consequence of his appointment to the Professorship of Engineering in Queen's College, Belfast, to which a considerable endowment, provided out of the public funds, is attached. It will no doubt be remembered that the College was deprived in a similar way of the services of Prof. Fuller's eminent predecessor here, Mr. Fleeming Jenkin, so that Prof. Fuller's resignation furnishes an additional illustration of the unequal competition with state-aided institutions to which this wholly self-supporting College is exposed, and which from time to time robs it of able Teachers, to the detriment of its usefulness and prosperity.

On the recommendation of the Senate, the Council have established a Professorship of the Páli language, the sacred language of Buddhism, the literature of which has of late years attracted the attention of scholars interested in Oriental questions. At the same time the Council appointed to be the occupant of the new Chair Mr. R. C. Childers, a gentleman acknowledged to hold a foremost place among Páli scholars, and the author of the only existing English and Páli Dictionary.

The term of two years, for which in the first instance Mr. Poynter was appointed Slade Professor of Fine Art expired at the end of Session 1872–73. In view of this event, the subject of Mr. Poynter's reappointment was referred by the Council to the Slade Committee, which presented its Report on the subject to the Council on June 7, when the following Resolution was adopted:—"That in the opinion of the Council the remarkable success of the Fine-Art School, as detailed in the Council's last Report, is a highly satisfactory proof of the ability which has been displayed by Prof. Poynter in the organization and management of the School, and in the instruction of the Pupils; and that consequently it is desirable, and the Council propose, to reappoint Mr. Poynter as Slade Professor for five years, without advertising the vacancy occasioned by the expiration of his tenure of the Professorship." This resolution was communicated, as required by the Bye Laws, to the Senate, which adopted a Resolution concurring in the course proposed by the Council; and at the next Meeting on June 21st, Prof. Poynter was reappointed accordingly.

Reference was made in last year's Report to the question of the appointment of Assistant Professors, and the plan there spoken of has received during the past year its first practical application in the case of Dr. Charles Graham, on whom the Council conferred the title of Assistant Professor in Chemistry, in accordance with the recommendation by the Senate in a Special Report to the Council.

ENDOWMENT OF THE CHAIR OF PHYSIOLOGY.

At the Session of Council on November 1st, the President announced that he had received a letter from Mr. T. J. Phillips Jodrell, in which he offered to present to the College the sum of £7500 for the permanent endowment of the Chair of Physiology, subject to the conditions specified in the letter. The Council at once adopted a Resolution expressing their very grateful thanks to Mr. Jodrell, and appointing a Committee to confer with him on the arrangements necessary for carrying his proposal into effect. At the next Session the Committee presented a Report, and a resolution was adopted expressing the assent of the Council to the conditions set forth in the draft instrument of endowment submitted by Mr. Jodrell to the Council. The Deed has since been executed by the College; and the securities representing the endowment fund have been deposited by Mr. Jodrell in the hands of the College Bankers, so that the transaction is now completed. The Deed contains the following statement of Mr. Jodrell's object in founding this liberal and important endowment. "Whereas I am desirous of promoting the study of Human Physiology in University College, London, and especially of encouraging original research in combination with professional teaching. And whereas I am advised that the instruction now given there by two Professors, under the heads of Physiology and Practical Physiology and Histology, might be given quite as effectually by a single Professor with the aid of one or more coadjutors, I have made over to the College $36,700 in Bonds of the Funded Loan of the United States of America, representing the sum of £7500 as a permanent endowment of such Professor . . . . . my object in creating the said endowment being to ensure such a provision for the said Professorship as shall induce men of eminent ability who may be willing to cultivate science for its own sake, to forego more lucrative sources of emolument, and to undertake this office on the condition of devoting to original research, either in connexion with this professorship or any other work of a kindred nature which shall be essentially auxiliary to such research, all the time that can be spared from the work of the Lecture Room."

In addition to the endowment fund, Mr. Jodrell has informed the Council that it is his intention to present the College with the sum of £500 to be applied under the direction of the Jodrell Professor of Human Physiology, in the purchase exclusively of such additional apparatus as may be required for the effectual prosecution of original research; and that he will pay this over to the College as soon as provision shall have been made for the reception of the apparatus, arrangements for making which provision are now in progress.

The best thanks of the Members and of the Council of the College are due to Mr. Jodrell for this act of enlightened and disinterested generosity, which there can be little doubt will tend to promote scientific objects of great importance, and to maintain the high reputation of the College in this branch of Science.

DEPARTMENT OF THE FINE ARTS.

Progress of the School.

The success of this new Department of the College, on which the Council congratulated the Members in their last Report, not only continued during the Session 1872–73, but was considerably augmented before the close of it. The total number of Students entered during the whole Session was 194, of whom 139 attended in the Summer Term.

The present Session has opened very satisfactorily. The number of Students in the Fine-Art School during the first Term was 109, and since Christmas 46 additional Students have entered it. There are at present about 123 Students of both sexes in the Department. Professor Poynter has found it necessary to appoint an additional Assistant, to whose superintendence the work in the Antique School has been intrusted. He has obtained some additional accommodation for the Students by giving up to them the Studio which was intended for his private use; but this sacrifice on his part has not by any means obviated the need for more building, the urgency of which has recently been brought under the consideration of the Council by Professor Poynter. The subject was referred to the Slade Committee, and it is hoped that they may be able to suggest some practical means for providing what is required; meantime it is apprehended that it may become necessary to limit the number of new Students to be admitted to the School.

Two Slade Scholarships were awarded at the end of last Session to Miss M. L. Hooper and Mr. A. Heseltine. Six Prizes of money and books, with two silver medals, were awarded to the most proficient Students in the several Classes, whose works showed that they had made satisfactory progress in their studies.

Five Candidates have again passed the Preliminary Examination in general knowledge, of which some account was given in the last Report, and have thus qualified themselves to compete for the two Slade Scholarships which may be awarded this year.

The Courses of Lectures on Anatomy, delivered during the Michaelmas and Summer Terms by Mr. Thane, the Senior Demonstrator of Anatomy in the College, were attended by 49 Students in all. Professor Henrici's Course of Lectures on Perspective was attended by 11 Students; and 18 Students attended Professor Bunnell Lewis's Lectures on Classical Archæology, with special reference to the connexion between Art and Literature, which were delivered in the Summer Term. Similar Courses have been established for the Current Session.

LADIES' CLASSES HELD AT THE COLLEGE.

The arrangements made for these Classes, as reported two years ago, having proved satisfactory, were continued during the last Session. The Council are happy to learn that the number of entries to these Classes was considerably greater last Session than it had been in the preceding one.

In connexion with the subject of Ladies' Education, it may be stated that the Council, at the request of Professor Courtney and on the recommendation of the Senate, renewed the permission which they had granted the year before, for Ladies to attend the ordinary College Class of Political Economy; and further, that under the same circumstances they have opened the Class of Jurisprudence also to Ladies, of whom four have availed themselves of the privilege in the present Session.

FELLOWS AND LIFE GOVERNORS.

The summons convening this Meeting contains two Lists, one, of eight former Students of the College, whom the Council have nominated for admisssion as Fellows; the second, of ten persons nominated for admission as Life Governors of the College, under the fourteenth Clause of the College Act. In both cases the selection of the persons to be nominated was referred to Committees of the Council, specially appointed for the purpose; and all the persons nominated have given their consent to their respective nominations.

THE HOLLIER FUND.

The scheme for the appropriation of the income of this Fund, mentioned in last year's Report as having been submitted to the Charity Commissioners, received their approval in the course of last summer, and the first Examination for the Hollier Scholarships was held in September. The Hebrew Scholarship alone was awarded, the Examiners having reported that no Candidate for the Scholarship in Greek had displayed a sufficiently high degree of merit to be deserving of it.

ATKINSON-MORLEY SURGICAL SCHOLARSHIP.

The terms of the bequest by Mr. Atkinson Morley of the Fund for establishing this Scholarship have hitherto been interpreted so as to make the award of the Scholarship obligatory, without regard to the absolute merit of the Candidate. It has for some years past been felt that this state of things is a positive injury to the Medical School of the College, and is at variance with what must be assumed to have been the intention of the Testator in founding the Scholarship. For the purpose of remedying this evil, and of enabling the Council to amend in various other respects the Regulations relating to the Scholarship, the Council in June last applied to the Charity Commissioners to give the Council the required legal authority to make the changes specified in the application.

The Commissioners have prepared a scheme, in which all the material proposals made by the Council have been embodied, and their scheme was approved by the Council at their Session on December 6th. The Regulations relating to the Scholarship have been referred to the Faculty of Medicine for revision in accordance with the scheme of the Charity Commissioners, so that the ensuing examination for the Scholarship may be conducted on the improved conditions.

THE YATES BEQUESTS.

In last year's Report it was stated that the Council, acting on the recommendation of their legal advisers, had appealed against the decision of Vice-Chancellor Bacon in this matter. The appeal was heard by the Lord Chancellor and Lord Justice Mellish on the 17th of March last, when the decision of the Court below was reversed, the learned Judges at the same time expressing a most decided opinion in favour of the validity of Mr. Yates's bequests to the College. It is to be regretted that notwithstanding this, Mr. Yates's legal representatives have determined to appeal on the question to the House of Lords, the judgment of which may not be pronounced for a considerable time to come.

THE LIBRARIES.

By the death of Mrs. Morris in December the College at once became entitled to that portion of her late husband's Library which she had not previously handed over to the College, as stated in several former Reports. The books remaining in her possession were after her death without delay conveyed to the College and placed along with the others belonging to the Morris Library, the whole of which, duly catalogued and press-marked, is now placed in the South Library.

Mr. S. Sharpe, so well known to the Members of the College for his numerous acts of generosity towards the College, has for several years taken great interest in our Library, to which very extensive and valuable additions have of late been made; and with a view to rendering the immense collection more easily accessible, and therefore more useful, he (by a letter dated September 14th, 1873) offered to contribute the sum of £1000 towards the expense of printing and binding a catalogue of all the books included in the separate MS. Catalogues of the three collections distinguished as the General, the Morris, and the Graves Libraries. This liberal offer was thankfully accepted by the Council, and active measures are in progress for completing the preliminary work of preparing the MS. for the printers.

The Council regret to report that in consequence of the departure of Professor Summers from this country to Japan, where he has accepted an appointment in the Imperial College at Yeddo, the work of binding the Chinese books forming the Morrison Library, as well as that of printing the Catalogue of that Library, has been interrupted for a time. It is hoped, however, that some competent person may be found to continue and complete the work, in which considerable progress has been made by, and under the superintendence of, Professor Summers.

An interesting collection of books, consisting of about 700 volumes relating to the history and antiquities of London, made by the late Captain Ward, was by his Will bequeathed to the College under the designation of the BIBLIOTHECA WARDIANA. A doubt which arose as to the validity of the bequest was disposed of through the kindness and liberality of Captain Ward's executor, Mr. W. Agnew Pope, and of the other persons interested under the Will, who have given effect to the Testator's undoubted intention by presenting the books to the College, where they have been placed in the gallery of the South Library.

The other principal donations of books during the past year are from the following:—The Lords Commissioners of H.M. Treasury, the Royal Society, the Royal Astronomical Society, the Royal Society of Literature, the Royal Asiatic Society, the Royal Institution of Great Britain, the Royal Medical and Chirurgical Society, the Royal Institute of British Architects, the Society of Antiquaries, the Pathological Society, the Asiatic Society of Bengal, the Statistical Society, the Zoological Society, the Obstetrical Society, the Pharmaceutical Society, the Clinical Society, the Smithsonian Institution, the Quekett Microscopical Club, Samuel Sharpe, Esq., Professor Stanley Jevons, F.R.S., Dr. Roberts, Dr. W. Squire, T. R. Lewis, Esq., M.B., Dr. Michael Foster, Hodgson Pratt, Esq., E. A. Schäfer, Esq., W. Cave Thomas, Esq., Hyde Clarke, Esq., J. F. Streatfeild, Esq., Professors W. Wright, Bunnell Lewis, Key, and Wilson Fox.

FINE ART AND OTHER DONATIONS.

The Council have pleasure in reporting that they have received from the Executors of the late Miss Susan Durant a finely executed marble medallion portrait, in high relief, of the late President of the College, Mr. George Grote. The medallion is the work of Miss Durant, and is an excellent likeness.

During the past year medallion portraits of the late Mr. Alexander Bruce and Mr. James Stanton Cluff, with memorial tablets, have been affixed to the walls of the vestibule of the General Library. These works were presented by the Professors and Students, whose subscriptions defrayed their cost. Professor Marshall devoted much time and attention to the plans for, and the execution of, these memorials, which commemorate two very distinguished Students of the College, whose early deaths were deeply deplored by their Teachers and fellow Students.

A marble bust of Professor Sharpey, executed by Mr. Thornycroft, junr., has been presented to the College by the Subscribers to a special fund raised in connexion with the "Sharpey Memorial Fund," to which reference has been made in several former Reports. The Bust has been placed in the Museum of Anatomy.

Mr. Arthur Grote has presented to the Museum of Comparative Anatomy an interesting and valuable collection of nearly 300 zoological specimens, some of them extremely rare, made by the donor during his residence in India. He has also presented a plaster cast of a bust of the late Babu Coomar Tagore, father of a former Professor of Hindu Law in the College, and himself the founder of a Chair of Law in the University of Calcutta.

The following Donations have been made to the Museum of Anatomy:—

A valuable collection of framed embryological drawings made by the Donor, Mr. H. B. Tuson.

A small, but in some respects, remarkable, collection of anatomical, pathological, and zoological specimens made by the late Mr. William Bartlett, and presented to the College by his son, Mr. J. J. H. Bartlett, both father and son having been former Students in our Faculty of Medicine.

An interesting collection of calculi from the North-West Provinces of India, made in the course of his practice by Dr. Rustomjee Byramjee, formerly of the East-India Company's Medical Service, and an old Student of the College.

PEEL MEMORIAL FUND.

The income of this Fund in 1873 was expended in the purchase of books &c. presented to the St. Augustine's Institute, Hackney; the Tunbridge Wells Institute; and the Yorkshire Union of Institutes, Leeds.

The Balance of the Dividends of the Fund now in hand is £56 14*s.* 9*d.*

HOSPITAL.

The total receipts for the year ending October 31st, 1873, including Legacies and the balance from the previous year, amounted to £19,180 14*s.* 7*d.*; the gross expenditure was £16,390 9*s.* 7*d.*, consisting of the following principal items:—£3673 3*s.* 5*d.* on account of debts of the previous year, £10,217 6*s.* 2*d.* for expenses of the current year, repayment of Banker's Loan £2500. The sum of £178 15*s.* 7*d.* has been invested.

The balance at the end of the financial year was £2611 9*s.* 5*d.*, and the debt amounted to £1732 14*s.* 1*d.*, being about £2000 less than on the 31st of October, 1872.

In the absence of the Earl of Derby, who had undertaken to preside, but was prevented from doing so by a family bereavement, Sir F. H. Goldsmid kindly presided at the Annual Festival in aid of the funds of the Hospital, which was held last year, when the subscriptions and donations amounted to £1476.

The Earl of Derby presided at the recent Festival on Tuesday, the 10th inst., when the amount subscribed was upwards of £1500.

The most remarkable event affecting the Hospital Finances during the past year was the occurrence of the first Hospital Sunday in London, on June 15th, when collections amounting, with some additions from other sources, to £27,370 were made at 1060 churches and chapels. The sum allotted to University College Hospital by the Committee to which the duty of distributing this large amount of money was entrusted, was £1150, a most welcome addition to the income of the year.

No changes of any kind have taken place in the personnel of the Hospital Staff during the year to which this Report relates.

"It shall be lawful for every Governor (other than a Life Governor) to nominate by writing under his hand some person, subject to the approval of the Council, to replace him in his lifetime, or to succeed him after his death, as Governor. And the person so nominated, if he claims the benefit of such nomination within twelve months after the time at which it purports to take effect, shall, unless disapproved of by the Council (such disapproval to be signified in writing within six months after the claim is made), enjoy all the rights, powers, and privileges of a Governor of the College, and among those rights the power of transmitting the same to any person to be nominated by him in the manner and upon the conditions aforesaid."
